Tokyo Spokesman Concedes Victory Far Out of Sight

BY ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Japan conceded that victory was still far out of sight in the battle of the Pacific today as American warships were officially reported to have thundered into action against enemy forces on Guadalcanal Island in the lower Solomons.

And, in Washington, Secretary of the Navy Knox told newsmen he believed "the Japanese have by no means as yet exercised their maximum force" in the Solomons campaign.

"It is still a good stiff, hard fight," he said, adding that he had no late information to divulge.

The navy in Washington disclosed that heavy United States naval units, boldly challenging a powerful Japanese sea armada, suddenly reappeared in the Guadalcanal battle theatre October 17 and effectively bombarded Japanese positions on the northwest section of the island.

Big fires were left raging and ammunition dumps were exploded, the navy said, and throughout the same day American warplanes blasted at the enemy's island foothold.

With their mission achieved, the U. S. naval force evidently withdrew without making contact with enemy warships, for the navy reported that Japanese ships retreating for the bombardment shelled U. S. installations on the northern coast of Guadalcanal some hours later.

The navy said, however, that no Japanese attempt to reinforce their troops had been observed since October 15.

American domination of the skies was indicated by the fact that American warships shelled the enemy positions in broad daylight, while the Japanese naval forces struck under cover of darkness, apparently fearing to venture out by day against U. S. planes based on the island.

In Tokyo, Japan's foreign office spokesman, Tomokazu Hori, told the nation in a broadcast that the Pacific conflict was gradually assuming the phase of a long-term war and warned of a possible general counter-attack by the United States against Japan.

While Japanese imperial headquarters maintained silence on operations in the Solomons, a silence unbroken since the start of the latest offensive, Hori declared that both the Pacific area and Africa, as well as Europe, were under consideration by United Nations strategists for the creation of a second front.

"Hori warned the nation . . . that the war had now entered a new stage, gradually assuming the (Turn to Page Seven)

Noted Screen Actress Dies

Beverly Hills, Calif., Oct. 20.—(P)—May Robson, 78, veteran Australian-born stage and screen character actress, died at her home today.

Despite failing health and eye-sight, she had been active in moving pictures until less than a year ago.

At her bedside when she died were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gore, and her secretary-companion, Lillian Hamner, who had been with her constantly since 1910.

Her last feature picture was "Joan of Paris," made last year by RKO and released early in 1942. Last winter, she was before the cameras for the last time in a community chest short subject with Lionel Barrymore and Lew Ayres.

92 Jobs In Communications Services Listed as Essential

Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—Ninety-two occupations in communication services are regarded as essential to the war effort, the War Relocation Authority announced today.

The list was issued last night as guide to local boards in classifying registrants for deferment and is confined to occupations requiring six months or more of training. The services included telephone, telegraph, newspaper, radio, broadcasting, newsreel and television and repair of facilities.

Last July the War Manpower Commission referred to selective service headquarters 34 "essential" activities including communications. Since then, selective service explained, the war manpower commission has been breaking these activities down into critical occupations which were in turn transmitted to local draft boards.

Selective service pointed out the new list was merely for guidance of boards as selective service could not direct the deferment of any special groups of men.

RECORD-HIGH TAX MEASURE ABOUT READY

House Action Leaves Only Senate Approval of Compromises Necessary to Adopt Bill

GROSS TEN BILLION

Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—The house finished its work today on a record-high tax bill, which will dip deeply into the pocketbook of the individual American and into the cash registers of the nation's business.

While the treasury's experts have estimated the wartime revenue measure would bring in $6,881,830,000 in new funds, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the ways and means committee reported to the house that it would yield a gross of ten billions and a net of eight billions dollars.

A ten-billion increase would make the total to be collected in federal taxes in 1943 roughly $27,000,000,000.

The house action left only senate approval of the compromise necessary to complete congressional action on the measure, and it was sent immediately to that chamber with the possibility that final congressional action on the bill could be taken there today.

Quick senate action would send the bill to President Roosevelt for his signature in plenty of time for the excise taxes to become applicable on Nov. 1. This would put $6,000,000 in the treasury next month over and above the excise taxes now in force.

The current bill carries a 5 per cent "victory tax" on individual (Turn to Page Seven)

Many Protest Drafting Of School Boys

BY JACK BELL

Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—An influx of protest mail spurred a movement among senators today to surround the proposed military draft of 18 and 19 year old men with protective restrictions for their schooling, training and off-duty activities.

Letters from mothers protesting against the induction of their youthful sons and complaining about interruptions in their studies were reported piling up on legislators' desks, as well as petitions from organizations urging that their camps be insulated against liquor and vice.

The senate has scheduled consideration Thursday of the draft legislation, already passed overwhelmingly by the house, and Senator Lee (D-Okla.) announced he would demand a record vote on an amendment to ban the sale of intoxicants and to enforce anti-vice regulations on and near military posts.

The house bill would allow high school and college students to finish their academic year, a provision several senators said might be written into the senate measure. As the latter stood, only high (Turn to Page Seven)

More Vessels Sunk By Subs

By the Associated Press

Two more American merchant ships have been sunk by torpedoes in the western Atlantic, with the loss of seven men, one of them a convoy commodore, the navy announced yesterday.

The announcement raised to 496 the Associated Press count of officially reported Allied and neutral nations cargo ship losses in submarine action in those waters since Pearl Harbor.

One of the vessels was torpedoed in the North Atlantic in July. Six crew members were missing.

Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the maritime commission, told the annual meeting of the Investment Bankers Association of America that the submarine menace would grow progressively worse as winter came.

"We can't lick the submarine menace," he declared. "You can get on top of it, maybe ameliorate it, but you can't lick it."

Land estimated that merchant ship production in the United States would be at the rate of four-and-a-half by next January, compared with three now and two last April.

Breakfast Essential Meal Dietitian Says

Detroit, Oct. 20.—(P)—An appeal to home-makers to "get up early enough in the morning to give war workers of the family an adequate breakfast and pack their lunch boxes" was voiced today by Dr. Helen S. Mitchell, principal nutritionist for the federal security agency's health, welfare and defense committee.

"Surveys have shown," she said in an interview at a convention of the American Dietetic Association, "that far too many men and women—particularly those who have to travel considerable distances to their places of work—are leaving their homes after having sketchy breakfasts or no breakfast at all."

Bund Leaders Convicted Of Evasion Plot

Jury Deliberates Nearly Six Hours Before Finding 24 Leaders Guilty

BUT ONE ACQUITTED

New York, Oct. 20.—(P)—Twenty-four erstwhile German-American Bund leaders, who Assistant U. S. Attorney Harold E. Corcoran said preferred the German fatherland to this country, have been convicted of conspiring to advise resistance of selective service.

The 24 men, each of whom may be sentenced to five years in prison and fined $10,000, appeared calm in federal court last night as a Manhattan housewife, Mrs. Marguerite Casey, chairman of a sit-man, assisted woman jury deliberated nearly six hours, announced the guilty verdict.

Another defendant, Ferdinand Callen, 57-year-old deaf proprietor of a South Bend, Ind., grocery store and a former Bund unit secretary, was acquitted.

Among those convicted were former National Bund Chief Gerald Wilhelm Kunze, of Camden, N. J., and Dr. Otto Willmet, both of whom previously were indicted in Hartford, Conn., on charges of conspiring to send military data to Germany and Japan. Kunze had pleaded guilty to the charge and Willmet had been convicted.

The indictment also had been brought against three, who pleaded guilty: William Luedtke, of Saddle River township, N. J., a former Bund national secretary, who was the government's main witness; Karl A. Bachmann, of Buffalo, N. Y., and John August Grill, of Brooklyn.

Thanks Badge Is Awarded to A. P. Manager

New York, Oct. 20.—(P)—Kent Cooper, general manager of the Associated Press, was awarded today the "A. P. badge" for his devotion to the service of the public.

The badge, which is awarded to those who have dedicated their lives to the service of the public, was presented to Cooper by the Girl Scouts of Greater New York, which has been awarded by them only twice before, in 1931 to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and in 1941 to Irving Berlin.

Song-writing is a hobby with Cooper, who has had six other songs broadcast since 1940. He never took a music lesson, except in public school classes, but once played first violin in a theatre orchestra in Columbus, Ind., for $1 a day.

REPORT URGES RESHUFFLING OF AGENCIES

New Super Control Board To Supervise War Effort Is Recommended by Committee

HEADED BY CHAIRMAN

Washington, Oct. 20.—(P)—A complete reshuffling of top war agencies under a new super control board was recommended today in a congressional report which said:

"Those officials who have charge of the war production program including the mobilization of manpower have not yet grasped the meaning of modern war."

The report, bristling with criticism of the present setup, was issued by the special house committee on national defense migration, headed by Rep. Tolan (D-Calif.).

It urged subordination of the War Production Board, the Selective Service Administration, the War Manpower Commission and the Office of Price Administration to a new super agency to be known as the office of war mobilization.

The proposed new agency, which the committee said should be created by legislative action, would be headed by a chairman and primarily would be a policy-determining group.

Under it would be an Office of War Supply, exercising functions now vested in WPB and the procurement divisions of the army, the navy and the maritime commission; an Office of War Manpower, taking over most of the duties of the existing war manpower commission and the selective service administration; and an Office of Economic Stabilization, an operating agency in which the present OPA would be the chief branch.

All Benefit By Revised Pay Schedule

Harrisburg, Oct. 20.—(P)—Governor James sent out an 800-word letter to state employees today saying that "the liquor clerks and the other state employees receive the same treatment—both get 15 per cent increases—through the revised pay scale he announced last week."

James said he acted to end "confusion" which "appears to be caused by politically inspired misstatements."

Cost of living increases for 45,000 state workers were ordered after state liquor store clerks ended a 10-day work stoppage which stemmed from their demands for a raise of 20 per cent. James said employees would receive 15 per cent more than on Jan. 1, 1941. His secretary, J. Paul Pedigo, explained that a $60 increase granted to liquor store clerks last year would not be deducted, however, because it was "long overdue."

"Two outstanding Democratic newspapers found it impossible to understand or inexpedient to state correctly" the adjustments, the Republican governor said.

"Two statements which have appeared, first that the liquor clerks would not share in the 15 per cent salary increase and, second, that they not only would share but would receive larger increases than the other employees, are both categorically misstatements."

Over 42,000 Pounds of Scrap Collected By School Pupils

South Street Building Leads Others in Borough With Nearly Five Tons

LACY CLOSE SECOND

Well, the solid South has done it again. No, we're not speaking about elections but about the recent Scrap Drive among Warren public schools. Final results, announced this morning by Wiley Corbett, Chairman of the County Salvage Committee, showed that South Street school, uniting solidly behind its teachers and principal in the big collection effort, turned in a grand total of 10,835 pounds or nearly 5 tons. Lacy School was a close second with 10,675 pounds. Standings of the rest of the nine Borough schools were as follows:

Home Street, 6520 pounds. High School, 3350. Beatty, 2465. Johnston, 2650. McClintock, 2225. Seneca and East Street, 1,625 pounds each. Mr. Corbett wished to express the gratitude of the Salvage Committee to school officers, teachers and students throughout the Borough for their work in making the drive a success. All the scrap was collected Friday through the help of the Masterson and Warren Transfer Companies, who generously donated their trucks to do the job. Total of all Borough schools was 42,970 pounds or nearly 5 tons. Proceeds of this salvage, when sold by the Salvage Committee, amounted to $230.20.

Meanwhile, schools in other communities in Warren County did a fine job in their part of the drive, as was revealed in the report made by Mr. Corbett to Colley S. Baker, Executive Secretary of the State Salvage organization, showing that a total of 128 tons had been collected to date by County schools, with more to come. Thus it appears that Warren schools collected only about one-sixth of the total collected by schools in the entire County. The rest of the report to Harrisburg shows that Warren County as a whole has scored considerable success in its salvage program during the last few months. During this period a total of 4,642 tons has come from (Turn to Page Seven)

"We have had much discussion in recent months about a second front," Alexander said, "but we must always remember that our ability to secure this depends directly upon the degree of control we exercise at sea as well as in the air."

He said the war against the U-boat was still "our greatest problem."

He said, however, that the United States and British shipbuilding programs "afford no more grounds for confidence in our final victory at sea over Germany and Japan than any other factor," although "we must fight on as we have fought" until the programs are completed.

State Boosts Salvage Total

Harrisburg, Oct. 20.—(P)—Although Wyoming has replaced Pennsylvania in first place in the newspapers' metal scrap drive, officials said boosted reports still coming in would boost the state's total.

Reports at New York gave Wyoming an average collection of 104.2 pounds per person to 101.2 for Pennsylvania. The state salvage committee, however, put the Pennsylvania figure at 102.51 pounds, with total collections of 507,446 tons.

Household collections totaled 209,514 tons. The remainder was coming in from industrial sources. (Turn to Page Seven)

SOVIET LINES STILL HOLDING REDS INSIST

Autumnal Storms Afford But Temporary Relief For Besieged City On Volga River

MUTINY IS RUMORED

By the Associated Press
Swarms of German dive bombers and fighters resumed a full-scale assault on Stalingrad today after cold rains had driven them from the skies in a short forecast of winter, but Red army headquarters declared the Russians still held their lines unbroken for the past 36 hours.

As the storm subsided, the German Transcaucasian news agency asserted that only "a few square kilometers" of Stalingrad was left in Soviet hands.

German military quarters, however, emphasized that "the tenacity of Soviet resistance was evidenced rather by the number of (street) barricades and other positions obstinately defended by the enemy than by the area of the city not yet in German hands."

Soviet reports said that supplies and troop reinforcements continued to reach defenders of the ruined Volga metropolis and that German long-range guns were heavily shelling the river in an attempt to interrupt the crossings.

Despite the temporary relief afforded by autumnal storms, which forced the gigantic battle back to the World War tactics of artillery barrage and infantry assaults, the Red armies were under savage attack by tank-led German shock troops in a northern factory district.

It was the 57th day of siege. Behind the battlefield, Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from the Italian frontier reported that an Italian Alpine regiment had mutinied at Gorizia, in northern Italy, when it was ordered to the Russian war zone.

Reuters said the ringleaders were shot by Fascist military police and that the troops were embarked forcibly without arms.

At the same time, advances reaching London said Albanian mountain troops had proclaimed an independent Albania and now were fighting the Italians on three mountain fronts.

The situation on the Stalingrad front appeared little changed since Sunday night, when the Russians made their last withdrawal.

Meanwhile, roundabout Axis reports from Ankara, Turkey, declared that "United States troops which arrived in Syria were being sent to Persia (Iran) and Russia."

PENNEY'S WARM WINTER WEAR

WHERE IS YOUR IMPORTANT 10% FOR WAR SAVINGS COMING FROM?

The average American family budget is not a very elastic affair. When we are asked to put ten percent of our earnings into War Bonds and Stamps, it means adjusting all along the line. We must do without many things, and we must save on the things we cannot do without.

One sure way to save is to buy all your family's winter needs at Penney's, where economical, waste-proof methods of doing business are proving to be a life-saver to millions whose family budgets must be stretched farther than ever before.

Personnel Association Has Meeting

The first meeting of the newly formed Warren Personnel Association will be held Wednesday night with a cafeteria style dinner in the Y. W. C. A. building at 6:30 o'clock. After the dinner the discussion session will be held in the Pennsylvania Electric Company meeting room on the third floor of its office building.

Clement Wolstencroft is president of the new organization and also administrator of defense transportation in Warren County. He will lead the discussion on how to get our defense workers to their jobs in the face of the tire shortage and impending gas rationing.

An official visitor in the person of Clinton Stark, field representative of the office of defense transportation, Harrisburg, will be present to aid in the discussion.

An invitation has been extended to prominent men who are interested in this phase of the defense system. If there are any others who would like to attend, they may do so by making reservations with James Kamen, 2400, or with Ray Ledebur, 830.

TIMES TOPICS

GROUP ORGANIZING
A new home economics extension group will be organized at Columbus on Thursday of this week.

PLEDGED TO SORORITY
Miss Dorothy E. Frick, of Main avenue, who is a student at the University of Syracuse, has just been pledged to Sigma Kappa Sorority.

MUCH IMPROVED
Edward Brooks, 532 Crescent Park, who submitted to an appendectomy at the Warren General Hospital on Friday, is reported to be considerably improved.

TO CONVENTION
Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Davidson, of First Baptist church, have left for Pittsburgh to attend the three-day convention of the Pennsylvania Baptist Association.

APPLIED FOR LICENSE
Frank D. Miller, of Spring Creek, and Miss Emma Ruth Hetrick, of Sigel, have filed application at the office of the Register and Recorder for a marriage license.

NO RESERVATIONS YET
Former Judge D. U. Arnd is planning on leaving for Florida to spend the winter and has tentatively set October 25 as the date of his departure. However, some difficulty is being met with in the securing of reservations for the trip. Miss Allie Mead will accompany him south.

ARE MAILING PACKAGES
Taking time by the forelock to make sure that their loved ones in foreign service received their Christmas parcels on or before the holidays, many are already mailing packages. The post office department has set a fixed size for parcels to be mailed and has set November 1st, as the final date for mailing packages abroad.

REPAIRS UNDER WAY
Street Commissioner E. T. Beck is making a number of minor repairs to the curbing about the city, sewer grates, etc. Auto drivers during the past few months have broken curbs at many places and efforts to get all in shape for the heavy rains of the fall season and the heavy snows of winter are under way.

COTTAGE BROKEN INTO

The cottage of P. T. Hultman located at Shipman's Eddy was broken into on the night of October 14th. Mr. Hultman drove into the yard of his cottage while the thieves were in the cottage and frightened them away. Two high schools lads have been arrested and confessed to the breaking and entering. Due to their age the names have been withheld by the authorities.

IS IN HOSPITAL

Homer F. Mohr, Conewango avenue, was advised this morning by the Oil City Hospital that his brother, Charles F. Mohr, of Reno, who was admitted there following an automobile accident early Sunday morning, is suffering a badly fractured right hip and leg. Aged 60, Mr. Mohr is a justice of the peace in his home community of Reno and an employee of the Independent Refining Company.

PATROL CHANGES

Lt. John C. Bricker, in charge of Lawrence Park Barracks of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, announces that, effective November 16, Cpl. D. A. Gehr, of Warren, will be transferred to Franklin and Pvt. John Krupke will come to Warren from West Springfield. It will interest many to know that Cpl. T. A. Hubley, former Warren boy, will be transferred at the same time from Meadville to West Springfield.

MEDICAL MEETING

Thirty-two members attended the October meeting of the Warren County Medical Society, held Monday afternoon at the Conewango Club, when Dr. A. F. Yerg and Dr. Gail K. Ridelberger presented an interesting discussion on parathyroid glands. A number of x-ray pictures were shown by Dr. Wm. Heimstrom, radiologist of the Warren General Hospital. Following the discussion, dinner was served with Doctors J. T. Valore, C. H. VerMilyea, R. L. Taylor, W. H. Shortt and A. F. Yerg as hosts.

BREWERY BUT A MEMORY

The Warren Brewery is but a memory as it has been razed by a crew of men who have been busy for some weeks past. Many of the brick have been sold and the steel and iron in the structure have gone to war. Dropping of the big stack at the building was an interesting bit of work and attracted much attention. Holes were made in the base and shored up with timber. A fire gradually burned out the timbers and allowed the stack to drop. It fell with a crash hurling brick over a large area.

HERE FOR RITES

Relatives and friends from away who attended the funeral services of Frank Mount, 1 West Third avenue, on Monday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Taylor, Smith, Cambridge Springs; Mrs. Morris Mount, Miss Mattie Mount, Mrs. Hugh Pickup, Cherry Creek, N. Y.; C. J. Rosen, Miss Dorothy Rosen, East Aurora, N. Y.; Clyde White, Jamestown, N. ## Two Given Freedom By Court Today

Before Judge Allison Waid a brief session of court was held this morning at which a number of motions and petitions were filed by various attorneys.

During the proceedings District Attorney Joseph Goldstein presented motions for the discharge of two men held under the jurisdiction of the court. One of them was William Mann, of Youngville, who when arrested there some time ago smashed up the lockup and did other damage. It was presented to the court that Mann had paid the costs in the case and the fines and costs imposed by the court. He was discharged with an admonition by the court to refrain from drinking in the future.

The other man was Walter Kowalski who was paroled by the court some time ago for the theft of an automobile. Kowalski has made restitution and paid most of the fine and costs in the case. He is anxious to enlist in the Coast Guard and this was taken into consideration and a portion of the fine remitted.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock another session of court will be held when the case of Julius Flow, Jr., a minor, by Aleck Teonchuk vs. the Pennsylvania railroad; Peter Teonchuk administrator of the estate of Catherine Teonchuk vs. the Pennsylvania railroad; Anna T. Flow administrator of the estate of Julius Flow vs. the Pennsylvania railroad will be heard. The suits are the outgrowth of an automobile accident which took place on the crossing just east of Pittsfield October 1, 1941.

TIMES TOPICS

DISCUSS TRANSPORTATION
County Superintendent of Schools H. L. Blair will attend a meeting of school heads from this section to be held in Erie Wednesday. At this meeting a discussion of priorities as they affect school repairs and buildings, transportation of students, etc., will be discussed.

TO ATTEND LAUNCHING

School pupils over the state who are gathering scrap in the school drive which has been extended until including next Saturday are competing in fine shape. To the student who gathers the most scrap will be a free trip to the launching of a battleship. In this connection it is interesting to note that the smaller schools have an advantage over the larger ones. The Scandia school with 12 pupils has an average of almost 300 pounds to the student while in the schools with a large enrollment the average is held low due to numbers.

LIMITS SCHOOL BUSES

A representative of the Public Utility Commission spent some time in the city today checking over with the county superintendent of schools the school buses of the county. Under an order from the P. U. C. the buses cannot be used for any purpose only the transportation of students to and from school. Football, basketball and other athletic teams cannot be carried in the future in the school buses. This ruling will undoubtedly work a hardship on the smaller schools of the county where the buses were used for the transportation of their glee clubs, etc.

Representative Of Beta Sigma Phi Is Organizing Chapter

Miss Margaret Milleret, of Kansas City, Mo., international field extensionist of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority is spending this week in Warren for the purpose of organizing a chapter. She is at Room 121, Hotel Carver.

Miss Milleret explains that Beta Sigma Phi is the largest Greek letter sorority in the world, with number of chapters, having 1400 chapters and 28,000 members. The sorority has chapters in every state in the union, in Canada and in Honolulu, with approximately 65 chapters in this state.

The basic principles are social and cultural, enabling young women, out of school, to continue their cultural interests with a congenial and active group. Membership is invitational and is limited to a chapter roster of 25, according to Miss Milleret, and chapter sponsor civic projects peculiar to their own communities.

Among the nationally known women who are sponsors of Beta Sigma Phi are Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, Mrs. Wesley Halliburton, Dorothy Canfield Fisher, Margery Wilson and Senator Iva Fallis, of Canada.

Well Known Couple Married In Akeley

Russell, Oct. 20—The Methodist church at Akeley was the scene of a pretty wedding Thursday evening when Florence Josephine Lounsbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lounsbury, of Russell, became the bride of Robert Ernest Haley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Haley, of Frewsburg, N. Y.

Rev. R. S. Naylor officiated and wedding music was by Mrs. Howard Fox and Mrs. Edward Miller. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street frock of light blue wool with hat to match, brown accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds. She carried a handkerchief and wore a pin which had belonged to her grandmother; also a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom. Margaret Lindquist, as maid of honor, wore pink wool, brown accessories and bronze pompons. Bridesmaids Dorothy Tillotson and Alice Fehlman wore respectively gold wool with brown accessories and green wool with brown accessories and each had a yellow pompon corsage. The bride's mother wore a dress and hat of military blue, blue accessories and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Haley wore gardenias with a blue silk dress.

The best man was Harold Arthur and ushers were Allen Haley and Richard Enos.

A reception for the bridal party followed at the Lounsbury home, Alice Lindell and Elvira Ostrom presiding.

Guests at the wedding were from Erie, Jamestown, Frewsburg, Warren, North Warren, Russell, Lander and Akeley.

Pre-nuptial affairs were given by Mrs. Leslie Putnam, Mrs. Harry Taylor, Mrs. Ernest Haley, Mrs. Harry Spencer, Margaret Lindquist, Bernice Lundmark, Alice Lindell, Mrs. Willard Munson, Mrs. Harry Randall, Marie Harrington, Mrs. LeRoy Larson and Mrs. Robert Wade.

SUCCESSFUL PARTY
A very successful card party was held last evening in Holy Redeemer church hall, when about 250 persons gathered there. Decorations were carried out with fall flowers and foliage and delicious refreshments were served by the committee. Those in charge are to be commended upon the success of the function.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Auction, Miss Marie Gaghan and Father Salvatore Mitchell, high; Mrs. James Glennon and Jack Clark, second, Contract, Mrs. Edward Lynch and Richard Mullhaupt, high; Mrs. Ray Smith, second, Five hundred, Mrs. George Beach and George Monroe, high; Mrs. Albert Smerker and H. G. Songer, second. Series of games, Mrs. Cora Wolfe and Paul D'Angelo, high; Mrs. M. Heim and Clarence Green, second. Mrs. Bert Sexton was awarded a War Bond as a special prize, with additional awards for Miss Anna Sinclair and Dave Allen.

CLUBS PRESENT FINE LECTURE
The united pre-school mothers' clubs of Warren presented Dr. and Mrs. Garry Cleveland Myers, of Chicago, in a fine lecture in Founders Hall of the First Methodist church Monday evening. About 250 men and women heard the lecture on "Our Children in These Times," presented in dialogue, a form of presentation for which Dr. Myers and his wife have become nationally famous. After the lecture, there was a general discussion of problems relating to child development and light refreshments were served.

DRAYER-SEDER RITES ANNOUNCED
At three o'clock Friday afternoon in the First Lutheran church at Falconer, N. Y., Rev. Gordon Bergin united in marriage Miss Betty Seder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Seder, and Ardel Dray, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fitzgerald, both of Warren. Attendees were Miss Jeanette Hatch and Ivan Hildum.

Miss Seder wore a street frock of brown silk crepe with matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of yellow tea roses. Miss Hatch wore pink rosebuds with an ensemble of brown.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at 105 North Carver street. The bride, graduate of the local high school in 1942, is employed in the office of Dr. George Webster, Mr. Drayer, member of the 1940 class, is a machinist at the National Forge plant at Irvine.

MEDICAL AUXILIARY
There was a good turnout of members yesterday when the Warren County Medical Auxiliary gathered at Red Cross headquarters at two o'clock to make surgical dressings. Later the group adjourned to the YWCA activities building for a business session and supper. It was decided to purchase a War Bond in the value of $50; also to purchase a YWCA membership. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Hilding Bengs and Mrs. Gail K. Ridselberger.

SHOWER PARTY
Myrtle Barr and Hazel Pangborn were hostesses for a shower party given to honor Kathryn Gordon, who is to be a bride in the near future. The time was spent in playing games and enjoyment of a two course luncheon. The honored guest was presented many gifts by the following: Mrs. William Fredricks, Mrs. George Fredricks, Mrs. Carl McDonald, Mrs. Richard Gordon, Mrs. Harry Bloom, Louise Baughman, Mary Kirberger, Rose and Esther Anderson and the hostesses.

FOR MISS BAUGHMAN
A pre-nuptial party given by Mrs. Arthur L. Cobb on Sunday was in honor of Miss Louise Baughman, who is to become the bride of Merle E. Faust on Saturday of this week. A three course dinner was served at a table appointed in yellow and white and centered with a bouquet of yellow roses.

Guests who showered the bride-elect with attractive gifts were Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Miss Louise Perks, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hornstrom of Warren; Miss Thelma O'Donnell, Bradford.

REBEKAHS PLANNING
Members of Lady Warren Rebekah Lodge have planned a picnic at the National Forge club house at Irvine Thursday afternoon, with a tureen supper to be served at six o'clock.

Regular lodge session this week will be at eight o'clock Friday evening. A new class is being started and members are asked to turn in their names of candidates at once.

ELSIE ROSS CIRCLE
The Elsie Ross Circle of Grace Methodist WSCS will meet in the Winger room at eight o'clock this evening and all women of the church interested in an evening mission study group are asked to be present.

PHI ZETA CHI

Chronic Colds May Be Something Else
BY PAUL BRAUNSCHWEIGER
of the Mullen Drug Co.

Rare is the person who escapes an occasional "bad cold." He is outnumbered many times by the person who suffers from a chronic condition and charges it all to the common cold.

Chronic colds are often traced to infection of the sinus and this is a matter for a specialist who not only possesses the scientific training, but special equipment for examination of the sinus canals.

Good health defies infection. A poor condition of health invites it. The positive approach to health is always better than the negative attitude of waiting until trouble strikes. Consult your doctor before your "colds" become chronic.

Use discrimination in selecting your drugist.

NURSE'S AIDE UNIT HONORS MRS. COYLE
The Pioneer Class of the Nurse's Aide Corps was entertained at the home of Mrs. Philip Coyle, North Warren, prior to her leaving for Buffalo to make her home. The time was pleasantly spent with games, exchanging of box lunches and presenting Mrs. Coyle with handkerchiefs from each member of the class.

Mrs. Perry McDannell has asked the class to meet at her home, Mohawk avenue, on the evening of November 10.

ATTEND WEDDING
Mrs. Lynn Branch and daughter, Miss Martha, of Fourth avenue, were in Pittsburgh over the weekend to attend the wedding of Miss Catherine V. Arnold and John Baker, both of that city. Miss Branch was maid of honor for Miss Arnold in the bridal which took place at the Pittsburgh Athletic Club, followed immediately by a reception at the same place.

PI MU CHAPTER
Miss Evelyn Samuelson, president of Phi Chapter, Pi Mu Society, presided at the first fall meeting when members gathered at the home of Miss Maxine Ann Beebe, Pleasant township. A miscellaneous program was followed by Hallowe'en refreshments and a pleasant social time. The topic for November study will be Schumann.

POT LUCK SUPPER
Members of the Y-Deb Club enjoyed a "pot luck" supper at the YWCA activities building last evening, with Doris Peterson as chairman, and listened to reports of the fall conference at Pittsburgh last weekend. Delegates who reported on the sessions were Arlene Schure, club president, Elizabeth Lopez and Dorothy Schmidt.

WSCS MEETING
The WSCS members of First Methodist church will have a tureen luncheon and meeting at the church at one o'clock Thursday afternoon and all are asked to bring table service and sugar. John G. Rossman, superintendent of borough schools, will be the guest speaker and all are urged to turn out to hear him.

FIRST PHILOMEL BUSINESS MEETING

Men's Class Honors West At Meeting

J. H. West, who has left for Washington, D. C., to assume the post of national adjutant for the Veterans Association for Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Forces, was honored guest at a farewell sponsored by the Jefferson Men's Bible Class of First Presbyterian church.

His achievements during World War I and his civic services in Warren were recited by A. H. Yerk, class president; Harold Hampson, teacher, and Dr. H. C. Warren, pastor. A fine leather brief case was presented by Franklin Hoff as a farewell gift from the class.

Progress of Boy Scout Troop 8 was made by R. L. Endress, troop committee chairman, who announced that Clifford Betts had been secured as Scoutmaster. It was also announced that the session of the church will sponsor Troop 4, of which Robert Jewell is Scoutmaster and which formerly met at the A. Beattie Johnson school.

A quiz on Warren borough geography provided entertainment as conducted by Mr. Hampson, with Walter Irwin, Roger Olson, Everett Eddy and Franklin Hoff participating. A group photograph was taken and refreshments were served by Thomas Perks, Dr. F. S. Richards and Mr. Hoff.

Hallowe'en Celebration Plans Mapped
That the 9th annual N. Warren Hallowe'en celebration to start October 28 is an assured success was amply indicated by the spirit of enthusiastic cooperation evident at the special meeting of the North Warren Civic Club last evening.

All the different committees responsible for the preparation of the four-day festivities are busily carrying out assignments, it was reported, and everything will soon be in readiness for the opening night.

The huge indoor carnival being held in the community house the nights of October 28 through the 31st will feature an outstanding bill of entertainment and there will be games galore for old and young. Special prizes will be awarded each evening and the grand climax will come with award on Saturday evening of the $1,000 War Bond.

Kiwanis Club Planning For SEB at YMCA
Dr. J. R. Elliott, chairman of the Kiwanis Saturday Evening Boys club and Christmas party committee held a committee meeting yesterday. Dr. Elliott states the club will be patterned along same lines as previous years with the exception that this year each club member will be a "Kiwanis Father" for an individual SEB club boy so that both will receive mutual good from the association. This new feature will limit the size of the SEB club to the same number of members as the Kiwanis club and enable the YMCA who cooperate with the Kiwanians to do a fine job, the smaller group of boys being all of about the same age group and same privileges.

Tomorrow's noon meeting of Kiwanis at the Carver House will feature Rev. Wm. G. Woodward as guest speaker.

SHOP NOW FOR THE BOYS OVER THERE

By this time it should not be necessary to call attention to readers of the importance of purchasing gifts for men in the army and navy in foreign lands so that they may be mailed on or before November first.

In other words parents and friends of men and women in the services who are stationed outside the United States should do their Christmas shopping and mailing this month if they would be sure that the gifts are received in time for the holiday.

The Army and Navy are reminding people of this while giving some useful information about what kind of gifts to send.

The presents that are wanted most, according to a survey recently taken among service men, are such articles as books, cigars, pipes and tobacco, waterproof wrist watches, cigaret lighters, pen and pencil sets, stationery, etc. These are things that can be mailed easily. Some of them will be permanent reminders of home to the men scattered around the globe.

But, say authorities, food and clothing are out. Cake that looks so delectable when sent may be a pretty sorry sight by the time it reaches its destination. Besides, American service men are the best fed and clothed in the world. They get all the sweets they want, and on the fighting fronts they can't carry a surplus wardrobe around with them.

These are good points to remember when picking out gifts that will really brighten the holiday for men overseas.

For other excellent suggestions in purchasing gifts for relatives and friends in the service watch the advertisements in the Times-Mirror.

DON'T EXPECT TOO MUCH

It would be easy to draw too much encouragement from Leon Henderson's plan to provide tires for passenger automobiles. That would result in another let-down, followed probably by accusations that Washington once more had promised more than it could perform, says Burton Heath in an editorial written for NEA and the Times-Mirror.

The important thing to be kept in mind is the continual repetition, in the more intelligently phrased news reports, of such expressions as "for essential purposes," and "for necessary driving."

Mr. Henderson does not suffer from any delusion that he can keep 27,000,000 passenger automobiles in rubber for the sort of casual riding about town to which Americans are accustomed.

He has taken to heart the impressive logic of the Baruch committee's warning that our war industrial economy will collapse unless passenger automobiles are provided with tires sufficient to care for war-necessary driving.

We can't win, because we won't have the weapons to win, unless we provide tires for such essential motoring. That is what Mr. Henderson is endeavoring to do. He is not deliberately trying to provide tires for pleasure riding in any of its forms.

Unintentionally, of course, Mr. Henderson is obliged to try to supply tires for pleasure riding—for driving to bridge parties, to the golf course, to shop for a couple of spools of thread, to view the autumn leaves in the country.

Unless the synthetic program gets under way faster than it now promises, Mr. Henderson is not going to succeed in the task he has set himself. His boards can grant certificates to all. But certificates make poor tires on any kind of road. They will be only as good as the supply of rubber with which to honor them.

It is possible to make the certificates all good. We can hold back rubber from the armed forces to provide tires and recaps for civilians for non-war use.

And how will we non-essentials feel, riding around on tires stolen from the tanks that, for our comfort, must go into battle on metal treads?

Pretty cheap.

If those rickety steps leading from Pennsylvania avenue to the gridiron at Russell Field survive the concluding home game on the local schedule, when Ridgway comes here October 31st, we suggest tearing them out and using them for heating fuel this winter. They won't last another season.

Washington In Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON — The Capital in Wartime:

One of the local writing johnnies tells this one on himself. He had landed at airport and was hustled into a city-bound cab with a young man in uniform.

By way of pleasantness, the capital newspaperman opened the conversation with: "I have just returned from an experience I wouldn't take the world for. Rode down to Houston and back on a tanker."

"The trip down was pretty exciting, but coming back we didn't even have one escort ship. Say, there wasn't an inch of the way that we weren't figuring on getting blown out of the water and into a sea of flaming oil," the civilian said breathlessly.

The young man in uniform was all interest. He agreed that it must really have been something, that he too would have gotten a thrill out of such a trip. He inquired: "How did you happen to be taking it? Work for the government?"

"Nope," said the civilian, "I'm a newspaperman."

"Is that so," said the young fellow in uniform, sticking out his hand. "I'm a newspaperman myself. I'm with The Associated Press. Name's Clark Lee."

(Note: Clark Lee is the correspondent whose front-line reporting of the bloody battle of Bataan drew praise from the war department and whose escape from Corregidor and eye-witness accounts of battles in the Pacific have made him one of the most thrilling reading to come from the many fronts.)

WASHINGTON newsmen and commentators haven't been able to figure out yet whether the President was praising to the skies or—what.

In that tense press conference just after he returned from his secret trip, the President said there was a minority of writers and commentators in Washington who, like some members of congress, serve selfish sectional interests by giving out "sententious views."

Webster's International Dictionary:

Sententious, adj. (1) Full of meaning and wisdom. Oos. (2) A terse and energetic in expression, aphorisms and maxims, sometimes with derogatory implications. (3) Marked by pompous formality. (4) Given to aphorisms.

In view of what went before, it's pretty safe to conclude that the President's statement used "sententious" in the sense that it was a saying, "with derogatory implications," but the boy's are still wandering. Most of them prefer the obsolete definition.

THE night before the opening of Washington's Stage Door Canteen for the service men, the promoters held a "pound party" preview. They planned it with little expectation of really stocking the shelves with coffee, sugar, cakes, etc. Admission was to be two pounds of food or $2 in cash.

When the doors opened, the lines blocked traffic in all directions. Before the bars went up at midnight, 12,000 persons had walked through the canteen and dropped their two pounds of pounds on the tables or two bucks in the cash drawer.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Short story for the everything-comes-to-she-who-waits department:

A few weeks ago when Harry Conover, the model man, was visiting relatives in Butte, he went into a bank to cash a check.

Behind the bank window he saw a red-headed girl so pretty that Conover forgot all about his check and gave her his best sales talk about coming to New York and becoming a photo model. Naturally, she thought a city slicker was trying to pull a swifty.

Very soon, however, on the covers of Vogue, Harper's Bazaar and Look magazines, will appear the picture of a strikingly beautiful red-head. She will be Karen X. Gaylord, the little Montana bank teller who changed her mind the next day and accepted Conover's offer.

OF COURSE, if you don't want to wait for a career to come to you, you can back into one the way Gloria Gilbert has done. When she was three years old she had such a bad habit of hunching her shoulders that her doctor recommended she be sent to a dancing school to attain correct posture.

With that beginning, Gloria won cups in New England amateur dancing contests, then turned professional at the ripe old age of 15. Today she is featured at the Versailles as the only girl who can spin on her toes 500 times in three minutes. It seems she can't do anything but spin, either, for although she works out new routines and wants to do ballet the customers seem fascinated by her old routines and demand more spins.

Gloria doesn't get dizzy doing her dance because she fixes her eyes on an object in the audience—but fast elevators make her lose her breath.

ONE-thing-at-a-time department: Chorus girls of the Park Central's Coconut Grove have organized a basketball team. . . . The song, "The One Rose," came out five years ago but the new recording by the Paradise Island Trio is the best yet. . . . Peck's Bad Boy was a model child compared with Jackie Kell, the Homer of the Aldrich Family program. For a dozen years, since he was eight, Jackie has been the proudest nuisance in something like 2,500 radio performances. . . . Kathryn Cravens was born in October, broke into radio in October, was voted one of the ten best dressed women in October, and was brought to New York from St. Louis this October as the first woman coast-to-coast radio commentator. . . . Helen Forest has sung with two Number One bands—first Benny Goodman, now Harry James. . . . And pert little Nancy Norman is the first girl vocalist with Sammy Kaye in seven years. . . .

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

DON'T ever argue with Grandma Hoskins about American history unless you know what you're talking about. Because when Grandma states a fact, it really is a fact.

The other day we got to talking about George Washington—who besides being a great general, was a public surveyor, a successful farmer, and a wise statesman.

"And he made mighty good beer, too," says Grandma.

That was news to most of us. "You can see his private recipe for beer right in the New York Public Library," Grandma Hoskins tells us. "In his own handwriting, at that."

And then she opened up on how Washington and those others who founded America believed in beer and moderation. Told us about William Penn who had his own brewery put in Pennsylvania, and Israel Putnam . . . Samuel Adams of Massachusetts and James Oglethorpe of Georgia.

"Beer," Grandma goes on, "has grown up with the country because it's a symbol of good fellowship and moderation."

Way back in 1789, she told us, James Madison stood up in the House of Representatives and made the motion urging "the manufacture of beer in every State of the Union." And that same year Massachusetts passed an act stating that "the wholesome qualities of malt liquors greatly recommend them to general use."

From there on—until early in 1918, the brewing industry kept growing and beer and ale kept getting better and better.

Then came prohibition . . . thirteen dark years that bred vice and crime. Grandma says it taught us something though—something that George Washington and all those other early American statesmen knew all along . . . that no law ever takes the place of self-restraint and moderation.

That's why they were friends of beer and made moderation a cornerstone of American freedom. They were right about a lot of things—Washington and Adams and Penn. And from where I sit, they certainly were right about moderation, too.

DEMOCRATIC

Harrisburg, Oct. 20.—(P)—A group of Pennsylvania labor leaders today advanced what Democratic officials termed "the greatest campaign to get out the vote that this state has ever seen" after a session called to rally labor behind that party's Nov. 3 election ticket.

After yesterday's meeting of union officials with Democratic Chairman David L. Lawrence and Ramsey S. Black, campaign manager, Lawrence declared: "With labor united and the Democratic party united, we are on our way to a smashing Democratic victory. The vote of Pennsylvania's working people, almost unanimously, will go to (Auditor General F. Clair Ross (candidate for governor) and Democratic candidates."

Attending the meeting were John Phillips and Lester Thomas, president and secretary of the Pennsylvania CIO; Thomas Kennedy, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers, and his assistant, Paul Mozelis; James L. McDevitt, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor; David J. McDonald, international secretary and treasurer of the United Steel Workers; Joseph B. Cohen, executive secretary of Labor's Non-Partisan League; and James Fox, Harry C. Walsh and William Major, legislative representatives of the Railroad Brotherhood.

Dwellings Rented Or Offered For Rent Must Be Registered

This is Registration Week for landlords of Warren County. Every dwelling unit rented or offered for rent must be registered. When you walk into a store nowadays, one of the first things you should see is the storekeeper's play of ceiling prices—what he charges for shoes or bread or meat, toothpaste or toilet paper. Those ceiling prices are a protection for the storekeeper and his customer, too.

It tells the tenant not only what rent should be, but what he should be getting for that rent. It is the landlord's job to know just how much control will affect his part of the property. It saves him from justified complaints. It puts the rent on record—protects him from unscrupulous competition.

And because it deals with the second largest item in the average worker's budget—rent—registration is one of the most important implements we have for keeping the cost of living down.

Rent Registration is required by law and there are severe penalties for landlords who fail to register. The registration form is simple, calling for a few basic facts about each dwelling—just enough to guide the Rent Office in administering rental ceilings.

Rent Registration is being conducted this week from 4:15 until 9 p. m. in these centers: Sheffield, Youngsville, Warren in the High School Buildings.

Rent control to be effective, needs prompt and one hundred per cent accurate registration of all rental properties. Rent control is a vital necessity—a means of curbing disastrous inflation.

New Tires Shipped By Auto Owners

Despite the fact that Uncle Sam is calling for all tires in excess of one for any automobile there have been few shipped from this city. Inquiry at the local office of the Highway Express Company elicited the information that seven shipments have been made with 15 tires shipped. Two inquiries were received today relative to shipping directions. The tires are being sent from Warren to the government warehouse at Washington. As the time grows near for the registering of all tires it is expected that there will be a car to get the tires on their way to the warehouse.

One inquirer stated that he had new tires in his basement and was not going to ship away his tires until he had worn the set on his car for some weeks yet and then he was going to put on the new set and ship in the old tires. The man living near Marienville is reported to the Express Co. as having about twenty tires in his home. He operates several cars and will replace his old tires with new ones before making any shipments.

First Sacker For The Cubs

BY DAVE HOFF

Chicago, Oct. 20.—(P)—The Chicago Cubs' muddled first base situation, which they tried futilely to plug by buying Jimmy Fox from the Boston Red Sox in June, might be cleared up completely next year by German-born, South American-raised Heinz Becker, who comes to the Cubs by way of Milwaukee.

Bill Veck, Jr., 28-year-old president of the Milwaukee Brewers, sold Becker to the Cubs at the close of the American Association season, and he is the loudest to sing the praises of the speedy first sacker.

Becker and Eddie Stanky, Brewer shortstop, were the league's top hitters in 1942, Stanky hitting .342, and Heinz .340. Both were sold to the Cubs but Stanky's draft board at once beckoned him to the army. Becker, married and the father of two children, is a good bet to stay around awhile.

West Point, N. Y.—This may be funny to Coach Lou Little and his Columbia Lions, but future opponents of Army's unbeaten gridiron powerhouse should take heed.

Coach Earl Blaik of Army devoted virtually all of yesterday's practice to the correction of "mistakes" made by the cadets in the game with Columbia last Saturday.

The score of that game: Army 34, Columbia 6.

Clemson, S. C., Oct. 20.—(P)—The Clemson-South Carolina football game at the state fair Thursday may be a toss-up, but chances are it won't be a tie.

The game will be the 39th of the series. Clemson has won 26, South Carolina has won 12, and there has been only one tie—a scoreless deadlock in 1915.

Ohio State Remains Choice Of Experts as No. One Team In The Associated Press Poll

BY HAROLD CLAASSEN

New York, Oct. 20.—(P)—Ohio State, with a record of four straight victories this season, remains the choice of the football experts as the country's No. 1 team in the second of the Associated Press's weekly polls.

Fifty-eight of the 119 sports writers gave the Buckeyes, who blanked Purdue while getting 26 points for themselves in their latest outing, first place on their ballots but 38 others decided the honor belonged to Georgia, a 40 to 0 winner over Tulane last Saturday.

The Dixie Bulldogs, second a week ago, held onto the runnerup position, 1,030 votes to 973, but Alabama, which stopped Tennessee, 8 to 0, exchanged places with Michigan and occupied third place while the Wolverines skidded to fourth despite their 34 to 16 win over Northwestern.

That was the only change among the first seven of a week ago with Illinois, Georgia Tech and Wisconsin keeping the fifth, sixth and seventh rungs.

The remaining three places in the top 10, however, went to newcomers with Notre Dame climbing from twenty-second to eight; Santa Clara moving up from a tie for fifteenth to ninth by beating California, and Boston College nudging up from eleventh to tenth following the Eagles' 7 to 6 win over the North Carolina Pre-flights.

Pennsylvania, tied by Princeton; Colgate, drubbed by Duke; and Washington State, loser to Southern California, were eighth, ninth and tenth a week ago.

Army and Texas Christian, neither defeated this season, failed to make the first 10 by 21 and 23 votes, respectively. They are in the second group along with Minnesota, UCLA, Texas, Mississippi State, Pennsylvania State, Tennessee, North Carolina and Syracuse.

The service teams, which have been outstandingly successful against college teams, are not eligible for consideration in the poll.

For the first time in a number of years there was a large bag of ducks on the opening day of the season. In the swamp near Akeley there were a number of lucky hunters and at Sugar Grove and near Lander the swamplands brought out a number of fine birds for the hunters bag. From all indications there will be the heaviest kill of ducks in the county for many years. So heavy has the demand been for duck stamps that the quota here has been disposed of.

With the small game season opening in New York state Monday there was a large delegation of Warren Nimrods in that state for the shooting. Squirrels are reported to be plentiful over the line and there are many birds in the lowlands.

Small game hunters of Pennsylvania where the season Opens October 31st, are looking forward to a good season. There have been plenty of acorns, hazel and other nuts and sleek, fat looking squirrels have been sighted by the huntsmen.

The State Game Commission has made no change in the bag limits this year and the members point out that they have been liberal in the allowance of game per hunter. Seth Gordon of the Commission states that there has been no request from Federal authorities for the enlargement of the skill allowed. The need for conservation of the small game is still needed, according to that if it should be necessary to turn hunters loose for food needs so that they can secure their licenses early to avoid congestion at the last minute and there have been a large number sold in Warren county already. In the state 625,000 hunters were afield last year and it is expected that equally as many will be out this year.

Covering The Sports Front!

By "BOB" JOHNSON

A former local boy who turned his way into fistic fame, fighting some of the section's top ranking fistic lighties and still remains in the high calibre class, writes of an interesting experience OVER THERE—While sauntering down one of Ireland's cobbled streets, suddenly a tall, gawky hunk of man caught his eye and he stood startled for a moment. He knew that there was just one person in the world with a stride like this soldier possessed and he immediately called out "Hey Joe" Gilson. Well, he turned around with a half-expected look on his face and smiled that farmerish grin of his, then grabbed little Frankie Russo and nearly crushed him with joy. Yessir, this former star local pitcher and local lightweight boxer spent quite a few hours together before parting and their main subject was our city's sports. Now Frankie's somewhere in Scotland and he agrees, along with Joe that of all experienced fighters during the war this has been the greatest treat and look out Hun, if you ever run into one of Joe's low hard ones or Frankie's roundhousers—if you want Frank's address, call in.

„SportShorties—J. R. tells us the score of Saturday's game was 12-6 and the extra point was no good on that first touchdown—many thought the final was 13-0—We're told that prancer! Pete Wilson had at least two chances to score in Friday's battle at Jintown, but his feet and the mud wouldn't stay together long enough—Sam Bredon reports that the Cardinal farm teams make the left side of the ledger look like a banker's nightmare and regardless of winning the fair, can't buy as many Victory bonds as the boys give him credit for. Eddie Cameron has been picked by at least one sports scribe as the outstanding coach of the week—He brought the Duke Blue Devils against Colgate Saturday, in one of the nation's biggest upsets—also that returned punt with a 72 yard run by Luper, Duke halfback has been picked as the outstanding run of the week—guess we saw a good game after all.

37th Straight Win Is Scored By Robinson

BY TED MEIER

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—(P)—Unbeaten Ray "Sugar" Robinson won his 37th straight bout at the arena last night, but though Izzy Jannazzo shared the crowd's cheers by absorbing all of Ray's Sunday punches without once hitting the canvas.

Robinson hit Izzy with everything in the book, from left jabs and right crosses to right uppercuts to the chin and body, but outside of seeing the Birmingham, Ala., veteran totter in the first, third, fourth and ninth rounds, the Harlem jolter had to be content with a 10-round decision.

Jannazzo, a 10 to 1 underdog and 3 to 1 to be stopped before the final bell, was so slotted at the finish that he turned a cartwheel in the ring.

His toughness may have upset Robinson's immediate ring plans. Dr. W. B. G. Terry, physician for the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, said after the scrap the Harlem dandy may have chipped a bone in his right hand. Dr. Terry planned to take several X-rays today.

A standing-room-only crowd watched the battle. The paid attendance was announced as 9,971 and the gross gate $25,300. Robinson weighed 143½ and Jannazzo 147.

DIFFERENCE

"Hot dogs" have been eaten in America for several thousand years. The ancient Mayas and Aztecs roasted dogs both for food and for sacrifice.

A Promise for Tomorrow

Chapter 29

The Promise

AFTER the first swift realization that the man meant murder, Julie's mind caught hold of a last shred of hope. If he intended to kill her, why had he stopped for all this talk? Obviously, he waited for something. But what?

"It won't matter how many people you murder," she said coolly now. "You can't win. Don't imagine that all Americans can be terrified the way Dawn has been."

"Suppose we call it 'an accident' the man smiled now. "Your friend young Mr. Fowler will —" he glanced at the watch on his wrist — "perhaps even by now have met with a very serious accident just beyond the river bridge."

Julie's heart froze. Now she got the whole thing clearly. Pete would — in case the "accident" didn't come off — be allowed to bring his help here apparently un molested. Walk straight into a trap from which he would be afraid to shoot his way lest he injure her. A hostage, she was.

Through all the panic that churned inside, Julie clung hard to the fact that with all his talk, he was actually doing nothing more original than trying to frighten her into revealing what plans she and Pete had made. For all his bragging, Arnaldo wasn't sure just what he might expect. Cheered, Julie played her part with every wit she could command.

It was an hour of the most dangerous sword-play with words. Julie—fighting for her own life as well as Pete's and the others—felt the minutes snail by as she waited for a signal she was sure Pete would try to give her.

The signal came just as Julie's hopes were beginning to bog down. A faint whistle that might have passed here in the mountains, for some bird call. Three short blasts that, de-coded, meant "Take cover."

A moment later, she heard the first of the shooting. And in the same moment she knew what she could do to help.

"There they are!" and jumped up, pointing out the window. "Look. Hundreds of them!" She'd counted on his being distracted for a moment. Not more than that, but long enough for her to race past him, tip the flickering kerosene lamp from its wall bracket, reach the door.

Then a crashing blow on her head—and oblivion.

Lindstrom Has Novel On Pithole

E. George Lindstrom of Cleveland has written another novel and the locale for the new one is at Pithole, Ghost City of Oldtime. In his latest work he tells much of the history of Pithole once a blaxing boom oil town with murders and gushers but now but a bit of farming land with only piles of rock and rotting timbers where once a busy town reared its head.

Lindstrom is a product of the Oil City Derrick where he learned the printers trade, blossomed into a writer and later worked on the Jamestown Post before going to Cleveland where he makes his home. The book will undoubtedly be read with interest by residents of this section familiar with the story of Pithole.

REPORTED PLEDGED

Word was received today that Alan Blair, 311 East street, and Ted Black, 604 Market street, who were graduated from Warren High School last June and who are roommates in their freshman year at the University of Michigan, have both been pledged to Lambda Chi Alpha, national social fraternity.

STARTING CLASS

Red Cross officials announce today that sufficient registrations have been received for an evening instruction class for the Nurse's Aide Corps and this will start on November 3. A number of other persons whose applications have been received have not yet definitely decided and they are asked to notify the officials as soon as possible. Others wishing to make applications are asked to do so at once at headquarters, 404 Market street.

CHANGE IN SCHEDULE

Due to the shorter days and the fact that the airports along the route are unlighted a change has been announced in the airmail schedules. The changes will become effective on Monday, Oct. 26. The northbound planes will leave Warren at 10:10 a. m. and 2:17 p. m. and the southbound trips will depart at 10:58 and 4:35. Persons using the air mails are urged to get their mail to the postoffice one-half hour before the planes leave.

COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

An Associated Press dispatch from Pittsburgh says that Federal Judge Nelson McVicar Monday ordered a $250 judgment by default entered against John Evan, operator of the Forest View Roller Rink, Sheffield, in a copyright infringement suit filed by a New York Music Publishing Firm. Evan was also assessed $100 attorney's fee and costs. Shapiro, Bernstein and Co., had charged Evan with playing "There'll be Bluebirds Over the White Cliffs of Dover" for profit and without permission of the copyright owners. The court also permanently restrained Evan from publicly performing the tune. The judge's order said Evan did not answer the complaint.

County Federation Meeting in Tidioute

Fortnightly Club at Tidioute will be hostess for the meeting of the Warren County Federation of Women's Clubs to be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Norton, 193 Main street, Tidioute, at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. T. Perry, of Franklin, who is vice president of the Northwest District, will be the principal speaker.

It is hoped that a large number of clubwomen of Warren, Sheffield and Sugar Grove will be in attendance for the meeting and the tea which will be served at the close of the afternoon.

GETTING FALL CLEANING

The mill race during the past week has been receiving its fall cleaning. The gates at the plant of the Phoenix Furniture Company have been lowered and a current created in the race which is bringing much debris down to the sluice gates. There it is snared by a boom and loaded into a flat boat and finally shoveled into the tail race, from whence it passes into the river.

CONCERT AT TIDIOUTE

A band concert will be sponsored by the Tidioute PTA on Wednesday evening, when the folks of Tidioute and vicinity will have an opportunity of hearing the National Forge Band. The program will be given in the high school auditorium, starting promptly at eight o'clock and lasting about one hour and 20 minutes, and all may attend for a small admission charge.

POLICE GIVE KEYS

In addition to turning loose a large accumulation of junk the police department yesterday gathered up almost two pounds of keys that had been left at the station at various times. These were all placed in the window of the Pennsylvania Light and Power Company on the scrap pile. Many of the keys had been about the station for a number of years many having been left by prisoners while others had been brought in by persons who picked them up on the street.

The defendants were charged with conspiring to advise others to resist service under the selective service act "until this law and all other law of the country or of the states which restrict the citizenship rights of Bund members are repealed." This referred to a draft law clause barring Bundists from jobs vacated by draftees.

Professor F. X. Finn of Fordham University, assigned defense attorney, who served without compensation, entered a motion for a new trial.

Judge Alfred D. Barksdale, who will pass sentence tomorrow, told the jurors the verdict was "fully justified by the evidence and the law."

The defense had contended that the Bundists had merely wished to test the draft law.

Other defendants included Joseph Bachmeier, of Erie, Pa.

Record-High Tax Measure About Ready

Incomes above $12 a week and a combined rate of 40 percent on normal and surtax earnings of corporations. Generally, the income and corporation taxes are retroactive to 1942 incomes, while the "victory tax" is applicable as of Jan. 1, 1943.

The bill raises the normal income tax from 4 to 6 percent; boosts surtaxes, now ranging from 6 to 77 percent, to 13 to 82 percent, with maximum applied to $200,000 level; cuts personal exemptions for income tax from $1,500 to $1,200 for married couples, from $750 to $500 for single persons, and reduces credits for dependents from $400 to $350. It allows new credit against income tax for all medical expenses in excess of five percent of net income, with maximum of $2,500.

Saying that the Allies needed control of the sea to "carry the war to the enemy, as we mean to do," Alexander declared also that "we must expect the enemy's effort at sea . . . to increase, but I assure you, so will our counter-measures increase."

Columbus, O., Oct. 20.—(P)—Senator Robert A. Taft predicted today an amendment would be offered in the senate to the teen age draft bill eliminating the 18 year olds and said he would vote for it.

"I am in favor of drafting the 19 year old, but I don't know about the 18 year olds," he said.

Taft said he thought they were "rushing the bill too much" and that it should not be passed "until the whole man power problem is solved."

Over 42,000 Pounds Of Scrap Collected By School Pupils

Tokyo Spokesman Concedes Victory Far Out of Sight

phase of a long-term war," Domei News Agency reported.

"The first 10-month period of the war of Greater East Asia is just the beginning of what is to come," Hori stated emphatically.

There was still no indication of a showdown battle between United States and Japanese warships in the Solomons. And for the moment at least both sides were apparently restricting their activities to hit-and-run assaults without risking a major engagement on which the fate of the entire southwest Pacific campaign might hinge.

Official dispatches said U. S. army flying fortresses and other Allied warplanes were inflicting heavy blows on Japan's sea-borne invasion forces throughout the 900-mile-long South Seas archipelago.

In two days of aerial combat, Japanese losses in the Solomons were raised to 340 destroyed planes. Eight enemy bombers and 11 Zero fighters were shot down in an attempt to raid the prize American-held air base on Guadalcanal.

At the far north end of the Pacific theater, American fliers again blasted the enemy's last base in the Aleutian islands, dropping 15 tons of bombs on the Japanese at Kiska. Overcast skies obscured the results of the attack.

On the New Guinea front, Gen. MacArthur's headquarters reported that Japanese troops, driven back through the gap in the Owen Stanley mountains, made three counterattacks yesterday but all were unsuccessful.

Dispatches indicated that the Japanese had suffered relatively large casualties as they sought to make a stand in the jungle-matted heights of Templeton's crossing, only 12 miles from their base at Kokoda at the foot of the mountain range.

Sydney, Australia, Oct. 20.—(P)—Australian soldiers are fighting the Japanese in China, it was disclosed today by H. V. Evatt, minister of external affairs.

London, Oct. 20.—(P)—The News Chronicle reported in a dispatch from Ankara today that Albanian mountaineers have proclaimed an independent Albania and are now fighting the Italians on three mountain fronts.

London, Oct. 20.—(P)—Reuters reported today in a Stockholm dispatch that "Ankara reports received by the German-controlled Swedish news agency said United States troops which arrived in Syria were being sent to Persia (Iran) and Russia." The dispatch added that the Americans mainly were troops trained for mountain warfare in special Arizona training camps.

Bern, Oct. 20.—(P)—Extraordinary police precautions were invoked today in the Marseille area as private advices reaching here from Vichy reported an increasing undercurrent of unrest throughout France, awaiting a declaration of future policy from chief of government Laval in a radio speech tonight.

"Don't Kid Yourself!"

We could lose
this War!"

MISTER, if you think this war's a cinch, better read your paper or listen to the radio. You'll change your mind—quick.

If you think we're going to march to Berlin and Tokio just because we're right—forget it!

People just as clean and decent as we are—just as righteous—just as patriotic, have been ground to the dust under the hob-nailed boots of other people trained and toughened for one purpose—war.

Choose now. Either we give our boys the planes, tanks, guns, and ships they've got to have to win—or we're letting them march to their defeat and our destruction.

Planes cost money. Tanks don't grow on trees. And the storks don't bring subchasers.

We've got to pay for them. "We" means all of us—including you.

How? By buying WAR BONDS. By putting 10 percent of every dollar we earn into the Pay-Roll Savings Plan. A dime out of every dollar—a dollar out of every ten—every payday. And every time our savings amount to $18.75 we get a Bond, worth $25 in 10 years. That's $4 back for every $3 we put in. Isn't that the least we who stay at home can do to help win the war? Stop and think about it—next time you're tempted to buy something you don't really need. Remember the President's words—"We cannot have all we want if our soldiers and sailors are to have all they need."

And if, every payday, we don't set aside every nickel, dime, or dollar we can possibly scrape together for War Bonds, we're letting our boys down.

That's the truth, every word of it—and we know it!

DO YOU KNOW?

When you buy WAR BONDS, you're saving, not giving! Series E WAR BONDS are worth 33½ percent more in 10 years! You get back $4 for every $3 you invest!

These BONDS, when held to maturity (10 years), yield 2.9 percent per year on your investment, compounded semi-annually!

Joining a Pay-Roll Savings Plan makes saving easy!

Joining your bank's Victory Club (it works like any Thrift or Christmas Club) is a convenient way to save for War Bonds for those who aren't members of a Pay-Roll Savings Plan.

You can have enough money to do a lot of things you'd like to do, and to buy the many things you'll need after the war is over, if you save enough in War Bonds every payday NOW!

You can start buying WAR BONDS by buying War Stamps for as little as 10 cents.

EVERYBODY—
EVERY PAYDAY 10% IN WAR BONDS
